IMPORTANT TIPS ON KEEPING WARM

Comfort at below zero temperature depends on a person's metabolism, activities, tiredness, diet and physical conditions, how wet or dry the environment is - among other variables.

→ Stay in GOOD PHYSICAL CONDITION. Good blood circulation comes with a healthy body.

→ EAT RIGHT. A proper diet provides the fuel (heat) for the body's "core temperature" that flows to body extremities.

→ AVOID ALCOHOL AND DRUGS. They cause capillary dilation and dissipation of heat which makes you colder.

→ STAY DRY. Moisture will conduct warmth away from your body faster than air.

→ Keep your WHOLE BODY warm and COVERED. If your hands, feet, and head are not properly covered, your body tends to get colder faster.

→ WEAR PROPER PROTECTIVE CLOTHING to protect the skin surfaces most often injured by sub-freezing weather.
